TELEGRAMS

(via Galveston.)

Berlin, 26th—A banquet was given yesterday in Brandenburg in honour of Emperor William, who delivered a long speech which is now the subject of comment, by the whole Press. The Emperor began by declaring those who systematically criticised the Government to be enemies of the State. "Unfortunately," he exclaimed "it has become the fashion to criticise all the acts of the Government: the public peace is disturbed on the most insignificant pretext, and the German people are to-day passing through such a psychological period that they are tired of life and are convinced that this state of things is due to the fact that our country is very unfortunate, is very badly governed, and that life with us is a veritable plague." "The confidence (H.M. added) which I have in the support I have hitherto met with, and which has been extended to your labours as well as mine, inspires me to continue with fresh vigour the mission which Heaven has entrusted to me, and in which I have so much faith that I am convinced that all events in my country have been brought about by the Almighty. I also believe that those who were our allies at Rossbach and Sonnewitz will not abandon us, as they never abandoned the cause of the Brandenburgs nor that of my family, nor will they stand in the way of the glorious destiny in store for us."

Paris, Feb. 26th—In their domiciliary visits to houses occupied by anarchists, the police have discovered a considerable quantity of explosive material. It is believed that the anarchists intended to blow up several buildings, including the Spanish Legation, to avenge the execution of the four anarchists at Xerez.

London, 26th—The House of Commons, by 267 votes against 230, has thrown out the Welsh (Disestablishment) Church Bill.

Rome, 26th—The news that M. Rouvier has been entrusted with the task of recasting the French Cabinet has caused satisfaction here. M. Rouvier, on the occasion of the recent unveiling of Garibaldi's statue at Nice, expressed very friendly sentiments to Italy.

London, 25th—The latest maritime news is the loss of the barque Pearl, in Crudan Bay, Scotland, during a heavy gale. The sailors engaged in a desperate fight to save themselves. Twelve succeeded, and three died on reaching the shore.

Paris, 25th—The Senate has thrown out the petition to be allowed to prosecute Senator and ex-Minister Constans for the well-known affair with Laur, the Boulangist Deputy.

St Petersburg, 25th—The Czar has issued a ukase granting a yearly subsidy of 600,000 roubles to the initiators of the Volunteer Auxiliary Fleet, on condition that it serve for ten years, and include four ironclads of 8,000 tons each and two transports.

London, 25th Twelve workmen have been killed by the falling in of a factory chimney at Clerkheaton.

WOOD-CUTTERS AT LAKE NAHUEL-HUAPI.

We learn with undisguised grief that Messrs. Christie & Co, probably a Scotch firm, have obtained permission from Government to fell timber to the extent of 3,000,000 cubic feet on Victoria Island, in Lake Nahuel-Huapi. The public is left completely in the dark as to the amount of timber on the island, but we have a well-grounded fear that when Messrs. Christie & Co. have got through their appointed task they will leave Victoria Island as bare as a billiard-ball.

In other words, we believe the Government has given a concession for an act of Vandalism, as if the scenic beauties of the country were not worthy of consideration. A gentleman who arrived last week from Patagonia informs us that Lake Nahuel-Huapi possesses the most superb vistas of mountain, water and forest. The lake has an area of 1200 square miles, or ten times that of Lago Maggiore. It is studded with beautiful islands, on one of which stand the ruins of the Jesuit Chapel built by F. Felipe Lagunas in 1704. There was a Franciscan mission under Father Menendez so late as 1792, and when Dr. Fonck, of Chile, explored the lake in 1856 he found the canoe used by that missionary.

The Chilian explorer William Cox visited Nahuel Huapi in 1864, and his description of the locality was published two years later in the columns of this paper, after his release from Indian captivity. He says that he had nowhere seen in Europe such scenery.

The majestic peak of Tronador rises over the lake to a height of 15,100 feet, primeval forests coming down to the water's edge. So vast a sheet of water would be, however, less picturesque but for the wooded islands, and it is one of these that is now marked out for the axe of the wood-cutter.

In a month or two Victoria island may be converted into a waste surface like Ilha Rasa, at the entrance to Rio Janeyro; the forests of centuries will have been cut down and converted into logs. This is very sad, but it is still more disheartening to think that there is nobody in the Argentine Republic to lift up his voice against the work of desolation.

The U. States Government ten years ago bought up the whole Yellowstone country, some 5,000 sq. miles, and made it into a national park, to preserve its natural beauties from the hands of the spoiler. The Argentine Government on the contrary makes a business with some adventurers from the British Islands to deface and destroy one of the grandest pictures in the South American Continent.

THE HELOPES MAILS.

SEVEN DAYS LATER.

London, Jan. 30th.

The Rossendale election has resulted in a magnificent victory for the Liberal party, Mr. J. H. Maden having been returned by a majority of 1,225 on the heaviest poll ever known in the constituency. In 1886 Lord Hartington, as the Dissentient candidate, had a majority of 1,450; in the previous year, as a Liberal, he was returned by a majority of 1,832. All the available electors, with the exception of about 150, recorded their votes.

Speaking in Edinburgh last night, Lord Ripon dwelt upon the important effect which the Rossendale election must have on political affairs. The Liberal victory meant that the Hartingtonian party would disappear at the general election. The Government dare not postpone the dissolution till 1893, and therefore he advised Liberals to prepare for the fight.

Eight armed men to-day entered the house of Mr. William Cornell, a British subject, superintendent of the mines at Ojen, near Malaga, and demanded a sum of 100,000 pesetas. They succeeded in getting away with 5,000 pesetas, leaving Mr. Cornell bound hand and feet. They also robbed and wounded a mining engineer living in a neighbouring house. Five men who are alleged to have been concerned in the outrage have been arrested.

M. Stambuloff, the Bulgarian Premier, met with an accident yesterday afternoon. He was out driving in a sleigh when a revolver which he carried in his pocket went off, the ball wounding him in the right thigh. The injury, fortunately proved, to be slight.

Action has been taken against the German comic journal Kladderadatsch by the Public Prosecutor in consequence of a series of articles upon the exhibition of the Holy Coat at Treves, by which, according to the indictment, it was intended to bring into ridicule an institution of the Catholic Church. A verdict was given in favour of the defendants.

Further disturbances occurred yesterday at Eastbourne, feeling running high in consequence of the above decision. The Salvationist bandsmen were stopped when they commenced to play upon their instruments, and exciting scrimmages ensued. Sympathisers with the army were hustled.

An important judgment arising out of the disturbances at Eastbourne was given on Saturday by the Court for the Consideration of Crown Cases Reserved. Several Salvationists were recently found guilty at the Central Criminal Court of "unlawful assembly," and counsel argued that no offence amounting to unlawful assembly had been disclosed, as the alleged acts of the defendants were not stated to have been "riotously or tumultuously" done. Without discussing the question of what in law constituted unlawful assembly, the Court unanimously agreed that there was no evidence on which a reasonable jury could have acted in finding the defendants guilty, and they accordingly quashed the conviction.

Rome, Jan. 23rd—Several strong shocks of earthquake have been felt here. A panic broke out and people ran about the streets. Several old houses fell in. Relief-committees have been named.

The Corporation of Naples have voted 2½ million fresh taxes.

Genoa, Jan. 27th—The steamer Duchessa di Genova has arrived here from the Argentine Republic, having touched at Rio. During the voyage 16 of the 200 third-class passengers were carried off by yellow fever. In consequence of this the Port authorities have ordered the steamer to undergo quarantine.

According to the Diritto, the Pope has made his will, but the contents of this document are not known. According to the same paper, His Holiness has named the following executors: Cardinal Laurenzi di Ruggero and Monsignor Saltolli.

The Consistory takes place on March 3rd, the 14th anniversary of the coronation of Leo XIII. Three new cardinals will be named: Mons. Varsary, bishop of Grau, Mons. Galimberto, papal nuncio in Vienna, and Mons. di Pietro, nuncio in Madrid.

Considering his advanced age, the Pope is wonderfully well. His medical attendants found it necessary recently to advise him to take more repose, as his Holiness was constantly in the habit of working until three o'clock in the morning. In view of the sanitary condition of Rome at the present season, the physicians enjoined on the Pope not to quit his own apartments. This fact came to the knowledge of the Italian Government, who are always on the alert to ascertain the state of health of the Pope.

One day, towards five o'clock in the evening, finding that the Holy Father was sleeping, he decided not to disturb him, but to return later. This double visit, the reason of which was not known outside the immediate "entourage" of the Pope, gave rise to all sorts of alarming rumours. The Italian Government redoubled its vigilance. They learned that a doctor was to be in attendance during the night at the Vatican, not knowing that a medical man is always in the Papal Palace at night, and the suspicions increased.

The new German and Prussian Loans will amount in all to £17,000,000 stg. They will bear interest at the rate of three per cent., as before, and will be issued on February 9th. The rate of issue will be about eighty four.

Naples, Jan. 23rd—The University students have created disturbances here.

Rome, Jan. 27th—The students in the University here have caused disturbances. The discontent of the students appears to be caused by the presence of Professor Lumbroso. The students attacked the printing offices of the Popolo Romano, which had taken the professor's part.

Genoa, Jan. 22nd—The Matteo Bruzzo has left with missionaries and numerous emigrants bound for Bolivia.

Berlin, Jan. 26th—In the course of a speech in the Chamber, Chancellor Caprivi stated that the State would never relinquish the control of the railways, for military reasons.

Vienna, 29th.

The Schneider trial came to an end this afternoon with a verdict of Guilty against Franz Schneider of murder in three cases, and of criminal assault in two, and against Rosalia Schneider of aiding and abetting the murder of the girl Zoufar, of being accessory to the murder of Hottwanger, and of robbery and violence in all the three murder cases. It is not necessary in this country for the Jury to be agreed, eight against four being sufficient for a verdict; but in the present instance all the interrogatories were answered unanimously. Both the prisoners were sentenced to death, the woman to be executed first.

The speeches of Counsel were listened to by the prisoners in totally different ways. The man let his head fall on his chest, folded his hands, and occasionally rubbed his eyes with a red handkerchief, whilst the woman tried not to lose a single word, following the speeches with eager interest. After the finding of the Jury she remained perfectly motionless and without expression, but the man cried, and nearly fainted, so that he had to be supported by the soldiers sitting near him.

On being asked by the President whether they had anything to say, Franz Schneider replied "No;" but his wife rose, and said, "I should only like to say one word more to my husband. Let him, in his last hour, tell the truth." The prisoners received sentence with remarkable composure.

It is not believed that in the present case the woman will be reprieved, for her guilt appeared to Judges and Jury, as well as to the public, to be even greater than that of her uneducated and dull-witted husband.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

POSTSCRIPT.

(From our own Correspondent)

January 23rd

The skies are dull. All things are dull, even to the court of the money-changers. The reduction of the bank rate to 3 per cent is of little moment when in the open market the rate is 1½. The bellicose rumours from Washington in reference to the Chilian dispute sent down Americans at the beginning of the week. These have recovered, but then came the collapse of Portugal. Though long expected, it had a certain effect upon the market in general. As for Portuguese stock itself it could scarcely go lower. The weather, the influenza, royal and ecclesiastical deaths and the almost ominous quiet of continental politics have contributed to the low tone of the Stock Exchange. Financial newspapers such as the Economist and Statist are not even enlivened by the usual abuse of Argentine finance and financiers. In fact, Argentina is at present out of it, and cannot regain notice till after the presidential election. If your interest is not exclusively wrapped up in River Plate affairs, you will find much to entertain you in the attitude of the London Chamber of Commerce towards Mr. Goschen's scheme, and in the "Murrietta's Deal" of the Imperial Trust Company, full particulars of which I send you. The Financial News will give you the names of the highly respectable directors of the Trust in question, and you will wonder, or perhaps you will not wonder, how Murrietas managed to "clavar" those gentlemen with some hundreds of thousands of rotten Argentine securities. No one will look at these things, and how are we to unload? How are we to hedge? In one concern I bought at 13 and am now trying to buy in at 7, but even if I get them I am only secure till 1894. On preference shares, I am supposed to get 5 per cent interest till that date, and "despues"? You are the watchman. What of the night? Very skimpy telegrams from Buenos Ayres only inform us that guns are in position round the Government house, and that Mendoza is in open revolution. Poor Mr. Smithers is by this time dressed in cloth of the broad arrow pattern and hard at work.

You will be sorry to hear of the suicide of Mr. Hume Webster, the financial gentleman who had a stud of race horses at Mordon Park near Oxted, and who interested himself in the return of Ormonde from B. Ayres. You remember his correspondence on the subject with Mr. Chaplin, the Minister of Agriculture. Mr. Webster was a nephew of Joseph Hume, the whilom financial reformer. He was educated in Montrose, and began life in a Scotch bank. He took the high road to London in 1868 and seems to have succeeded in the financial line in the city. He was found yesterday lying dead with a revolver beside him in a wood on his own estate at Caterham. As yet nothing is known of the causes which may have led to the poor gentleman's tragic end.

In regard to diplomatic changes you will have heard that Sir Robert Morier after all finds that the state of his health will admit of his remaining at St. Petersburgh, while Lord Vivian goes to Rome in his stead. Of ecclesiastical changes resulting from the death of Cardinal Manning I can tell you nothing. Vaughan is the name most mentioned as a successor. Monsignor Gilbert has a good chance. Stonor, at first named, seems to have dropped into the back ground. The Catholic See of Westminster will be a most difficult post to fill. The superiority of Cardinal Manning in intellect, his democratic and even socialistic tendencies, made him "one of us"—I speak as a Protestant; and during his ministry the two great branches of one religion progressed in England smoothly and amicably in at least parallel lines. It is an honour to the metropolis that the two great English Cardinals, Newman and Manning, were Londoners; and both scions of commercial families. Moore's Almanac claims to have prophesied the deaths of the Duke of Clarence and of Cardinal Manning. There is some justification for the claim, but the wording was as usual conveniently vague.

5.50 p.m. I have consulted the latest telegrams and I find nothing of interest, I dare say you will be too much overwhelmed with printed copy to require a larger postscript. Next week business will have recommenced. For days we have been under a pall.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

One of the first measures that the new Governor of Mendoza intends to adopt is in reference to public health, which seems to be following the same road as the finances of the province. The great increase in the rate of mortality in Mendoza is directly traced to the energetic efforts of "curanderos" or quacks to fill their pockets and save their fellow-mortals from the ills that flesh is heir to. We may here remark that financial quacks have brought about the present disastrous economic situation. The new Governor intends to make the quacks swallow their own medicine, which is about the best way to exterminate this parasitical ilk. The Interventor is at present visiting San Juan: it is rumored that his curiosity has been roused to find out by what means the Free and Easy there has been enabled to declare a dividend. As soon as he returns to Mendoza, he will issue a decree dismissing himself, and return to B. Ayres. One of the new fledged deputies is drafting a bill, which he fondly hopes will be accepted as a Press Act. The bill is intended to protect the life and property of editors.

In looking over our San Juan exchanges we find that the Mendoza Interventor is part-owner of one of the largest vineyards in that province. Mr. Uriburu believes in San Juan wine, which, besides strengthening the body, appears to have the peculiarity of giving an original turn to the San Juanino mind. Sarmiento's great originality is supposed to be connected with the consumption of San Juan wine. This is a deep physiological question.

The Santa Fé Government has summarily dismissed fifty justices of peace "como medida moralizadora," which means a great deal.

A telegram was received yesterday from Catamarca stating that the west of that province is on a war-footing, the national guard having been called out. The guard, to get their hand in, are committing so many outrages that the people in the country districts are arming themselves to defend their lives and properties. The telegram does not state why the National Guard has been called out.

The Dolores Cattle-Show was brought to a close on Wednesday; the total proceeds of the sales foot up $50,000 which is considered to be a very respectable amount. The Show only lasted three days.

Several influential residents in Olavarria have clubbed together with a view of starting an agricultural bank in that district, on the same lines as the bank started by Don Nicolas Lowe in Mercedes. Fifty thousand dollars have already been subscribed for the new bank.

MR. CLEARY'S BENEFIT.

Such a spectacle as that afforded by the National Theatre on Wednesday nigh has rarely been witnessed in B. Ayres. In some respects, the spectacle recalled the gala performances in the halcyon-days of "boom," when the theatres were crowded to the portals, and tickets were sold at an exorbitant premium in the streets. There was not an empty seat in the pit, nor a box unoccupied in the theatre. There was barely elbow-room in the place. The crowd swarmed in the lobbies and surged at the portals—"a truly, tremendous house, worthy of B. Ayres," as Mr. Longworth, the ubiquitous manager, was heard to exclaim. The audience was enthusiastic, thunders of applause greeting the appearance of each artiste, and the great heat seemed in no way to diminish this enthusiasm. The number of fans continually moving lent a "Mikado" appearance to the audience.

The performance opened with the first act of the Mikado, capitally given; the usual ballet being interlarded by a most clever performance by Sr. Carlo and his two children. Mr. Wilkinson's joke of Cricket or Tennis was noticed by few.

The second part was reserved for the Tomba Company and, these artistes did much to sustain their reputation as public favourites.

The programme was not strictly adhered to, but the changes were quite as acceptable as the original items.

The Duet from the Beggar Student was splendidly sung by Sta. Paoli Bonazzo and Señor Rinaldi and was repeated in response to a most enthusiatic encore. Parla was charmingly sung by the Sta. Lambiase.

The "Duo de los Paraguas" concluded the second part. Sung by such artistes as Sr. Marchetti and his wife, it is needless to say it was encored. Sr. Carlos Tossi rendering of the romanza "Adieu Mignon" was one of the good things of the concert.

The excerpts from "Patience" and the "Pirates" were well given.

Miss Braham sang the Romanza from "Pepita," and received a not-to-be-denied encore.

Mr. Fiske, though not on the programme, sang "Jolly Jenkins," and being encored, repeated the last verse; his song was one of the successes of the night.

Miss Cook's selection, although encored, was not a good one.

The performance appropriately finished with the "Good Night" chorus from "Ermine."

Mr. Cleary, amid the most enthusiastic cheers, then stepped forward, and in his usual outspoken manner, declared himself so overpowered by the "mucho calor" that he would not recite the monologue assigned to him in the programme. He felt deeply grateful for this manifestation of the British public, amongst whom he was glad to see many faces of Argentine friends. He thanked his friend Signor Tomba and his troupe, and Messrs. Carlo, for their valuable assistance. He then enumerated the misfortunes he and his company had met. They were all, however, alive and in good health, and he hoped to have the pleasure and privilege of bringing out the company again within the near future.

The last performance of the company takes place to-night, a varied and enticing programme having been prepared for the benefit of the chorus. In view of the general sympathy which their misfortunes have awakened, they may count on a good house.

EMIGRATION TO THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC.

The Foreign Office has just issued an elaborate report from the British Consulate at Buenos Ayres (written by Mr. Gastrell, British Vice-Consul and Immigration Agent in Buenos Ayres) on emigration and the demand for labour in the Argentine Republic, subjects which have of late received much attention in Europe on account of the great increase in the emigration and the alleged ill-treatment of the immigrants. The report, which extends to about 60 pages, shows that immigration, which was so great a few years ago, has been greatly reduced, and that emigration has so enormously increased that the country lost 28,000 persons in the first eight months of 1891 by the excess of emigration over immigration. Subsidized immigration cost the country £800,000 for the importation of a few good agriculturists, and has now been abandoned, except in special cases. The exodus in 1890 and 1891 has been caused by bad times, chiefly due to financial mismanagement. British immigration, as a whole, has not been successful, and a great number of British immigrants were only induced to sail for the Argentine by the bribe of subsidized passages and wages which they erroneously believed to be very high in dollars. These immigrants also expected too much, and are little suited to a Spanish country and habits and customs so different from their own. Italian immigration is by far the most important, and Italian labour is most sought after in the Argentine Republic. The unsatisfactory state of the country has caused a crisis and retrenchment in every public and private enterprise; commerce also is almost at a stand-still until the value of the paper currency shall be fixed. As a result of the universal retrenchment, thousands of persons have been thrown out of employment. Wages in various parts of the Republic are now very low when converted into gold, and do not compare favourably with wages in England. The cost of living is low as regards food, especially meat, but rents are fairly high even at the gold value of the depreciated currency, and clothing, tools of all descriptions, and all imported articles are enormously dear.

Mr. Gastrell refers to the financial situation of Argentina as under;—

The financial situation has been going from bad to worse, the paper dollar has been daily depreciating, and everyone, except the rash speculator, hesitates to enter into any commercial dealings until the fluctuating value of the currency is more or less a known value. The premium on gold has risen by leaps and bounds from an average of 35 per cent. in 1887, to 157 per cent. in 1890, to 300 per cent. in 1891, and has in October last touched 352 per cent. Under such conditions no commercial enterprise can be carried on; an apparently profitable transaction one day may become a disastrous loss the next. Commerce and business of every description is in a passive state of expectancy, everything is almost at a standstill. The only class of the community who are in a good position to-day are the producers of articles for export or of those articles which alone compete with imports. These producers, paying all their outlay in a paper currency, depreciated 300 per cent. to 350 per cent. as compared with gold, and receiving payment for their exports in gold, are in an enviable position to-day. The articles they export are chiefly "camp" (that is country) produce, wool, hides, wheat, &c. Hence the crisis is felt but little in the agricultural and stock-raising country. It is in the towns that it is so keenly felt and resented. The growing scarcity of employment, in ordinary trades and occupations, is widely scattering the crowds congregated together during the late years of prosperity. Such a "boom" as that of 1889 is never likely to recur. It has been stated that 42 per cent. of the population of Buenos Ayres was exclusively engaged in supplying luxuries to the remainder. This luxury has now been abandoned to a great extent: horses, servants, carriages, and articles of luxury are being given up, and strict economy practised. The retrenchment must and does fall heavily on the producing classes, entailing great misery amongst them. All tradesmen are greatly affected; some have sold out and emigrated.

The report concludes as follows:—

To emigrate to the Argentine Republic to merely earn wages would be folly for any British labourer unless under contract to be paid high wages in gold for any special work. Englishmen of all working classes should not emigrate to the Argentine Republic at the present time. And, in the future, the intending emigrant to the Argentine Republic should be careful before leaving to obtain from the Emigrant's Information Office in London the most recent information respecting this country. He should specially ascertain the value of the paper currency as compared with gold, so as to know the equivalent value in English money of the wages then ruling in the Argentine Republic, and what demand there is for his particular branch of labour. The only profitable openings for foreign labourers or persons in the Republic at the present time are for agricultural labourers or farmers with small capital. At the present value of the paper dollar, each of the value now of 1s., wheat-growing is a profitable business. The rent of lands is low, as also the purchase price. But it must be remembered that the paper dollar may any day increase in value, when lands paid for in paper dollars would cost more to the foreigner in gold, as would also wages, food &c. On the other hand, the paper dollar may still further depreciate, when lands would be still cheaper than they now are, unless prices rose to compensate. Therefore, it would also be wise for even the agricultural labourer, who may with advantage take up agriculture in parts of this country, to be careful to obtain the most recent information on the state of wages, labor, and the value of the paper currency, before deciding to embark any little capital he may have in farming in the Argentine Republic.—S. American Journal.

BUENOS AIRES CRICKET CLUB AND THE OPEN LAWN TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

24th. Febry.

Mr. Editor.

In reply to your letters published this morning from "A Member" and "A Present Committee Man" the rule referred to reads as follows: "No. 15. Members shall pay an entrance fee of $20 and the subscription shall be divided into two categories, viz—

(a) Playing or active members, who shall be entitled to play any game allowded by the Club, shall pay a yearly subscription of $15 payable in advance.

(b) Non playing members, who shall be allowed the use of the pavilion and grounds, "but shall not play either cricket or lawn-tennis," shall pay a yearly subscription of $5."

I can see no other interpretation of the rule than that which I put on it, and I think the rules were made with the special object of preventing any, but those who paid for the privileges of the Club, from making use of the ground.

Another rule, No. 21, states: "Members shall be allowed to introduce one visitor at a time whose name must be entered in a book kept for that purpose. Such visitor shall not be again introduced for a term of six months."

How will they get through an open Tennis Tournament under such conditions?

These rules were formed after much discussion and made expressly stringent from the feeling that the small piece of ground, of which the Club at present enjoys the use, was not large enough to admit of too great an increase of members.

The fact that three gentlemen kindly offered prizes does not in the least enforce their acceptation by the Committee, and I should not be surprised to learn that the prizes were originally offered for the usual Club Tournament, and I feel quite confident that such generous supporters of the Cricket Club had no idea there would be opposition to the open Tournament on the ground of an infringment of the rules.

The questions asked by "A Present Committee Man" are quite irrelevant to the present discussion. I have no very distinct recollection of the Open Tournament he refers to between the B. A. C. C., Rosario, or Montevideo cricket clubs; but, if my memory is not at fault, I believe the idea was to establish the same friendly rivalry between the Lawn Tennis players of these clubs as has existed for many years at cricket. A condition of the first Tournament was that the final ties were to be played at Palermo, and it was hoped that subsequent encounters would take place at Rosario and Montevideo on the grounds of the respective clubs.

But these matches are very different to the proposed Open Tournament, the ties being played off in one day, and, as far as we are concerned, only members of the B. A. C. C. were allowed to compete.

The Committee last year refused permission to matches at football, and I have always been an opponent of that game being played on a cricket ground with so little good subsoil as at Palermo.

Athletics were generally patronized, and meetings held for the members of the B. A. C. C., and I am sorry to see the meetings have fallen through of late years.

An athletic meeting uses the ground for one day and generally not in the cricket season.

An Open Tennis Tournament in the middle of the season is a very different affair.

Yours truly
An Old Committee Man.

Buenos Ayres, 25th.

Mr. Editor,

As an old member of the Buenos Ayres Cricket Club, I regret very much to see the amount of discussion the "Open Lawn Tennis Tournament" is causing. What originated in a doubt as to whether the Sub-Committee had acted rightly in advertising an "Open" Tournament—which doubt was settled by the Committee, and a letter was addressed to the Sub-Committee sanctioning the Open Tournament—has now apparently drifted into an open war Cricket v. Lawn Tennis. I believe a general meeting will take place, and that about fifty members, presumably sane men, have pledged themselves to follow the lead, and vote blindly with the three retiring Committee men who, by the want of interest they have shown in the Club, certainly have not proved themselves worthy of support in any way. The gentlemen who form the Sub-Committee and who suddenly find themselves placed at the head of the so-called Tennis party, are well known sportsmen, and I am sure one and all of them would smother the slightest attempt to injure or weaken the Buenos Ayres Cricket Club. Their names should be a guarantee that no attempt to bring forward Lawn Tennis to the detriment of cricket is meditated. I would advise all members to go to the general meeting unbiassed, and after hearing both sides of the question vote straightforwardly and honestly according to their own judgment.

I am
Yours truly,
Palermo.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

The National Railway Board have reported favorably on the application of the Central Cordoba for authority to build a third-class station at kil. 428. The Board of Public Works have also reported favorably on this application.

Mr. Michael Fay, chief of the Accountant's Office of the National Railway Board, has reported on the guarantee-account of the Pacific Railway for the half year ended September 30, 1891, on the section from Mercedes, Province of Buenos Ayres, to Mercedes, Province of San Luis. According to decree of October 11, 1891, the four years allowed the company to sink the 50% of the gross returns due the State in rolling-stock and repairs, date from January 1, 1890; so that, so far as the half year in question is concerned, the company are not liable for the 50% stipulated in the contract. However, Mr. Fay maintains that the company owe the State 50 % of the gross returns from March 5, 1885, to December 31, 1888. Mr. Fay states that the company should be compelled to pay this 50 % of the gross returns, plus seven per cent interest, as a "sine qua non" condition for the payment of the guarantee.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

"Waiting for something to turn up" was the state of affairs yesterday. There was no hot news from any quarter, and it is a curious paradox that in spite of the heat of the weather, the general public sigh for news to make them perspire still more, and cause their hair to fall out. The male public, be it observed, have no spare hair to lose: baldness is rapidly increasing; and the number of people, young and old, who have to wear spectacles is alarming.

We remind subscribers to the British American Benevolent Society that the Annual Meeting takes place to-day at 2 p.m. at the British Consulate, when the report which has appeared in our columns will be read. A new Committee has to be elected.

We have received a letter addressed as follows: "For the gentlemen, Trimble, Connor and Greenwood, winners of the head prize." This refers to the lucky trio who won £10,000 in the Montevidean Lottery lately. It is either a begging letter or, this being leap year, a proposal of marriage, in a spider female hand. In case of a wedding being the result, we claim the privilege that prevailed long ago, when we were young, gay and marriageable ourself, viz., the first kiss from the bride, and the privilege of proposing her health at the wedding breakfast.

The cable lines to Europe are now in marvellous working order, both on the East and West Coasts. The telegram from London to Montevideo on Wednesday indicating the state of the weather there at 1 p. m. and about which we allowed ourself the luxury of a mild joke, arrived in Buenos Aires also at 9.26 a.m. having been transmitted from London to Buenos Aires in nineteen minutes. Yesterday there was a similar telegram to the effect that at 1 p.m. the weather in London was fine, which only occupied ten minutes in transmission. The object of these daily telegrams is to demonstrate the capabilities of the duplicate cables via Pernambuco.

We thank Messrs. Huergo and Co., for the latest papers from England by the Hellopes.

The Cleary Company say Adios to-night with a benefit for the ladies of the chorus. Let them have a bumper. They deserve it, and the programme could not be better.

Mr. Peuser, who may be termed the Routledge of Buenos Ayres, for the magnitude of his publishing business and the superior style in which his books are issued, has just published a most amusing book of travels among the Tobas Indians, of the Chaco, by the well-known writer Oliveyra Cezar, under the title "Amores de Una India," the hero of which is Don Allan MacGregor. It is illustrated with a number of beautiful engravings: price $2 currency.

Olmi, the popular and philanthropic auctioneer, sells to-day in Calle Rodriguez-Peña 47 (altos), a grand English menage. It is a fine opportunity for parties looking for good English furniture.

The London Daily News, referring to the outburst of loyalty in England since the Duke of Clarence's death, and the firm hold monarchy has on both the hearts and heads of the English people, says: "Why the most advanced politicians in this country have as much idea of attacking the Throne as of voting for the abolition of the solar system. To have brought about this result stamps her Majesty as the most remarkable woman of her age. The Prince of Wales, with his restricted opportunities, has followed in his mother's footsteps, and there is no ground for doubting that Prince George will keep up the tradition."

The marriage of Mr. Julius Spangenberg to Miss Magdalena Amorim took place in Montevideo on Wednesday evening. We beg to offer our congratulations to the happy couple.

There are more mosquitoes about than is at all comfortable. Did not some Argentine genius invent lately a machine for abolishing these insects and squaring the circle at the same time? If so he would oblige by lending it to us.

That Confiscation scheme over the water is a most extraordinary affair, quite equal to anything produced on this side of the river by the "crisis of progress." What stands out clearest in this business is the astounding way in which European investors can be hoodwinked about foreign securities. The Montevideo Times says:—"The news from London about this nefarious business, up to January 23, continues to show it as full of double-dealing and mystery. Although it was officially announced here that Jan. 31 was fixed both here and in London as the term for conversion, it appears that no such announcement had been made in London, where the bondholders were being wilfully kept in the dark as to the progress of the scheme."

President Herrera has risen 50 per cent in the public estimation in Montevideo owing to his recent vigorous purifying of his Cabinet. His new advisers are all respectable.

Among the apochryphal stories afloat in London about the late Duke of Clarence is one that the Czar of Russia once boxed his ears and sent him home, because in a moment of anger Prince Eddie kicked one of the Czar's pet dogs which tried to bite him.

All the Tories in town—and there are a good many of them, as Toryism is always fashionable abroad—will feel the unbidden tear in their eyes on hearing of the Grand Old Man's sweeping victory at the Rossendale election, which was looked on as a test case for the coming General Election. Such a complete smash-up of the Duke of Devonshire's great local influence was not looked for by even the most ardent Gladstonian, and is, therefore, all the more significant.

We have received the following 'cartita':—

Dear STANDARD,

You threw out a hint some months ago that the cactus plant was an excellent Blood Purifier. Will you kindly tell me how to procure and how to use it? I am sure it would also interest many of your readers.

Yours etc.,
Gringo.

Some of our "boticario" friends will, no doubt, be able to tell our correspondent what he wants to know.

Our esteemed Spanish contemporary the Correo Español compliments us on selecting the Cleary Company, foreign news and other pleasant matters as themes, rather than the dreary waste of Argentine politics. "Gracias, colega."

The drought is playing old Harry in the doctoral province of Cordoba. No rain for a month and billions of Locusts all over the camp is the unfortunate state of things there. Instead of making fortunes this year as they expected, the agriculturists are ruined.

Sir Edward Watkin is reported to have said at the recent meeting of the South-Eastern Railway Company in London: "They might be surprised to learn that in the unfortunate accident which occurred near London Bridge the other day, from some cause which they had up to the present been unable to discover, the carriage which left the metals was a third-class, filled with respectable people who might and ought to have paid first-class fare." This is tantamount to saying that respectable people who won't travel first class, but insist upon going in third-class carriages, deserve to be smashed.

The Operaio Italiano Hall, which echoed last week the charitable lecture of Mr. Melton Prior, resounded on Wednesday night with sounds of another kind. The Italian community met to have a chat about the celebration of the fourth centenary of their distinguished countryman Christopher Columbus; but for some reason, it was not by any means a friendly chat, and the row became so great that the meeting finally broke up in great disorder, but without having broken anything more valuable than a few pot hats.

The politicians haven take lustily to handbills as effective electioneering mitraille. Yesterday another appeared advocating Dr. Luis Saenz Peña as President and Dr. Joseph Uriburu as Vice. It is pleasant to think that a few months more will put an end to this political campaign, which makes so many heads—bald and otherwise—lie as uneasy at night as

Dear Sirs—
"I have tried HAYWARD'S "PASTE" DIP on my Sheep, and have pleasure in bearing testimony to ITS EFFICACIOUS DIP. I need have no hesitation in recommending it generally as a Cure for Scab, without discolouring or damaging the Wool.
The "PASTE" is in my opinion preferable to the Powder, and will probably have a larger sale than the latter."
Yours very truly
(Signed)
JOHN KELLIE.

It has been proved by many important Estancieros that HAYWARD'S PASTE is more convenient to use than any other Dip, being already mixed and dissolving in any kind of water. It makes a smooth soapy bath which adheres well to the Fleece and leaves the wool clean and soft.

ON 'CHANGE.

Thursday, Feb. 25th.

The gold market opened very firm this morning, slackened as the day grew, but closed very steady. The speculation was in a state of expectancy, the bulls waiting for the bears to step in and buy back, and the bears passive, waiting for eventualities to turn up between this and the liquidation. The result was a disultory speculation, in which little or no advantage was gained by either bulls or bears. Twenty-three thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the price opened at $57, rose to 57.70, fell to 56.50, and closed steady at 56.70, say 2484 o|o premium. Sovereigns were dull; about two thousand were sold, opening at 17.70 and closing at 17.60, say 2494 o|o premium. The market closed rather firm than otherwise; active operations are expected to-morrow, which will be the eve of this month's liquidation.

In spite of all that is said to the contrary, there is a dull rumor in the hall that the Limits Question with Chile is in an unsatisfactory condition. For days past this rumor has been rampant; it has been repeatedly denied, yet it gathers volume every day. The latest report in this respect is that the Limits Treaty does not suit either Chile or Argentina, and that the two Limits Committees will be back in Santiago and in this city respectively before the end of March. Whatever truth there may be in these rumors we know not, but it is a significant fact that the Argentine Foreign Office is very silent, whilst these reports are being actively circulated, perhaps for speculative purposes on 'Change. Meantime, it is well known that both the Chilian and Argentine Governments are most desirous of preserving cordial relations, in view of the very unsettled condition of internal politics in both countries; therefore, there-fore, no fear of any disagreement of a serious nature in the negotiations going on at present.

In local politics there is an ominous "statu quo" that does not augur much in favor of the latest political evolution with Luis Saenz Peña as Presidential candidate. It is whispered that there is much opposition and demurring in both conciliation parties. In view of this strain, they say, General Roca left Montevideo in a hurry to see that political matters take a turn for the better, and in favor of the new candidate. From all that is going on, one would gather that Dr. Luis Saenz-Peña does not care much for the honor tendered to him, nor do the conciliation parties care much to force that honor on him. In other words, there is a silent antagonism that may find full vent any day in a serious opposition, and at this critical juncture, so near the Presidential election, a last effort must be made to unite in favor of the present candidate or select some other statesman to meet the aspirations of the country. In fact, the greatest uncertainty appears to prevail in political circles.

Politics, however, have little to do with the march of the speculation at present, unless some very startling event take place. The battle of the month must be now decided by those who have gone "long" and have run "short" of gold. Bulls and bears must fight it out to the bitter end, and opinions are very divided as to the speculative engagement. The bulls are passive; the bears are waiting; outsiders are perplexed, and much anxiety prevails. It would be well for the market at large if the bulls gain a slight advantage: if the bears win and force down the market, there will be a thorough rout and a "sauve qui peut" of a disastrous kind in the big bullish and outside camp. The bears have made money in the last ten days, and if they manage to carry on their victory the decline may be the last straw that will break the camel's or bulls' back. The market believes that the bulls will manage to keep a firm front.

Patriotic Bonds were weak and dull. Cedulas were also very weak and tottering.

Exchange was quiet at 48 to 48¼d.—little doing. Discounts continue as difficult as ever.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day:—

Dr. George Newbery has obtained permission from the Land and Colonies Office to turn to account five leagues of forest land in the territory of Neuquen. The concessionaire is bound to turn out 500,000 feet of lumber.

The Land and Colonies Office have rented to Don Mateo Lujan eight leagues of land in section X of the Pampa Central at the rate of $100% per league per annum.

At half-past two the general meeting of members of the Bolsa began. The voting commenced at that hour and was closed at 3 p.m. Many people objected that the voting was closed so early, as many votes were still outstanding. At 4 p.m. the Secretary, Mr. Gache, read the results: the gentlemen elected were:—

Several protests were raised and the Chairman had to ring the bell several times to maintain order. The election was not a popular one, for there was little or no applause. The election was closely contested.

Owing to the general meeting of the members the ordinary Bolsa machinery was at a stand-still; no second ring was held, but outside on the kerbstone a weaker feeling was reported in gold. The cash price was quoted at $56¼ to the ounce, say 247⅞ premium. All the speculative skirmishing to-day did not amount to much; operations must begin in earnest to-morrow. The closing rate of gold this afternoon did not augur much in favor of the bulls and the bears look with confidence to a falling settlement. The bulk of the settlement must come off to morrow, as there will be only one ring on Saturday.

The Argentine cruiser 25 de Mayo arrived yesterday in the Outer Roads after a rapid cruise of 20 days in the South Atlantic. It appears that she captured four vessels, not three as said at first, all engaged in plundering the guano deposits of the South.

The produce markets continued quiet to-day. Some consignees have begun to let go small quantities of wool. Arrivals from the rural districts are small.

Telegrams from Rio quote exchange on London at 11¼d. Sovereigns are at 208$570.

The La Plata left Rio on Tuesday at noon.

We take the following from the Montevideo Times:—

"The recent Government decrees had an unmistakably good effect on the market to-day, which was consequently more animated than we have seen it for two or three weeks past. There was a decided access of business and prices improved, though not so much as they would have done were it not for the absence of money.

"National Bank shares opened at the improved price of 10, where they remained through the day after an unimportant deflection to 9.80. The rush of sellers at this price and the want of money for speculation prevented them going higher, though after the second ring sales were done at 10.20. We hope to see the rise confirmed and continued. 3160 shares sold.

"Auctioneer Garibay has sold a 'solar' of land near the Central Railway Station at Peñarol to D. Lertora at $1 the vara, a well sustained price. Auctioneer Maeso has sold, for payment of mortgage, a land and building in Calle 18 de Julio, next Santos Palace, and letting on to Calle Colonia, with a site of 1941 varas, to B. Montaldo for Lorenzo at $14.50 the vara.

"6500 arrs. wool were sold in 'feria' yesterday at 24 to 28 reals fleece, according to quality."

The returns of the Custom House to-day amounted to

HORSFORDS
BAKING POWDER

Ordinary Baking Powders are made either of Cream Tartar or Alum. Cream Tartar powders leave in the bread Rochelle Salts, a continuous use of which is not desirable. Alum powders are condemned by physicians as unhealthful. Neither of these powders add anything of nutritive value to the bread, and both produce, biscuit, cake, etc., that are dry and tasteless when cold. Professor Horsford's Phosphatic Baking Powder, leaves in the Bread etc., the life sustaining Phosphates of which the flour is deprived in the process of bolting, and which are necessary to maintain health.

It is a fact that the best Scotch Whisky has now arrived in this country, and the following lines from BON GAULTIER'S BALLADS, viz: "THE MASSACRE OF THE MACPHERSON" (from the Gaelic) will prove that the "GLENLIVET" Whisky has always been to the fore, and its superiority will enable it always to maintain its position.

"Fhairshon had a Son

TEA

INJURIOUS TEA DRINKING.

In the "Daily Post" of September 2 appears a leading article—evidently from an analytical expert—showing that after 12 minutes "draw," Indian Tea yields 17·73 of tannin, while from China comes only 7·93. What this means few know, but those troubled with indigestion may realise in part by use of True China Tea for one week.

GUARANTEED PURE.

Beware of gross, imitations of this well-known mark. Sold in tins of 1, 3, 6 and 12 lbs. 129 j19 xp

At the Estancia Grande, the property of GEORGE BELL there are always on Sale Clydesdale and Cleveland Stallions, Durham Bulls, and Lincoln Rams, also Potros suitable for carriages and heavy draught.

As all animals offered for sale at this Estancia are by stallions, bulls, etc., imported direct from England by the owner, it would therefore be advantageous for intending purchasers to inspect the same before purchasing elsewhere.

Nearest Station (under a league from the Estancia) EMPALME PEREIRA F.C. a La Plata from whence animals can be despatched to any part of the Republic.

Animals of the same breeds are obtainable at the Estancia La Favorita. Apply to the Mayodomo, Almacen La Suiza, Carrera Tandil a Necochea, or to Hotel Dhees, Tandil; also at Estancia Santa Catalina. Apply Mayordomo, San Jose de la Esquina, F.C.O.S. Rosario.

According to numerous testimonials which we hold the extract of pure tobacco is the only infallible remedy to radically cure the scab in sheep and naturally the cheapest. As there are several trade marks like ours care must be taken to see that the extract bears the key marks, without which it is not genuine.

Directions for use

One part of extract mixed with 100 to 150 parts of hot or cold water for bath, and with 80 to 100 parts for hand curing.

which obtained the only Prize medal at the Exhibition in Edinburgh 1890, and the eulogiums of all the Agricultural Press at the Royal Agricultural Show at Doncaster in 1891, where were exhibited Skins dressed with Cannon's Dip and those undressed showing a difference in value of over 25/ per dozen in favor of Cannon's Fluid. These Skins will be exhibited at the Feria of the Sociedad Rural at Dolores and Chascomus.

This Dip has the following advantages:—It never stains the wool, but augments the growth and ensures the highest value in the market. It is easy to use, being readily soluble in cold water, and hand curing is rarely required after.
